PRESS RELEASE

'Matilde' & Champagne Taittinger @ The Westwood

The Westwood Hotel in Dangan is delighted to announce that the Champagne Taittinger Van 'Matilde' will pay a return visit to the hotel on Ladies Day of the Galway Races. 'Matilde' is a full size replica of the 1947 delivery van used to ferry Champagne supplies in and around the restaurant of Paris in the middle of the century and will be on its first visit to Galway City.

The Westwood will be using the van to dispense complimentary Champagne Taittinger to the guests of the hotel as they depart for the racecourse on Ladies Day & during their popular Ladies Day Bar B Q on Thursday evening. 'Matilde' uses the Verre de Vin wine preservation system which was installed last year into the Westwood Bar. This system keeps wine & Champagnes fresh for a period of upto 21 days and encourages the service of quality wines by the glass.

Speaking at the announcement of securing the services of 'Matilde' General Manager of the hotel, Dave Kelly, expressed his delight at being able to offer the hotels many corporate & racing guests something unique to start & end their Ladies Day Experience.
